THE EUROPEAN CONGRESS.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 25.—The Times' correspondent reports that at Monday's sitting of the Congress the right of the Sultan to place on the Roumelian frontier whatever troops he deemed necessary for security was admitted in principle, but at the same time Russia proposed a series of amendments which England refused to accept. The Congress fixed nine months to allow Russia to withdraw her troops from Eastern Roumelia and Bulgaria; for this concession, Russia will withdraw the amendments.

There is evidently a close alliance between England and Austria, but each comes most prominently forward on the points involving its own interests. The correspondent reports Beaconsfield in conversation, Friday, with Bismarck, who urged him to make concessions, to have said: "I did not come here to yield."

The Greek representatives received no notice that the Congress had decided to admit them, and supposed the final decision of the question had been reserved until the questions affecting Greece are taken up for discussion.

The Potter Committee.

By Telegraph to the News.

WSAHINGTON, June 24—The Potter Committee met at 10:10. Mrs Jenks resumed the stand, but nothing of importance was elicited.

In the Potter Committee to-day Mrs. Jenks was required to produce certain letters of Anderson's which she had expected to receive, but she had not got them yet and did not know when she would get them. Springer elicited the fact that she had been to Donaldsonville to see Mrs. Dan Weber, recently, at request of Mr. Sheldon (the Republican attorney at the other end of the line,) who wanted Mrs. Weber to come to Washington. Mrs. Jenks visit was a very brief one, but long enough to allow Mrs. Weber to talk a good deal about the statement that Mrs Jenks had received $100,000 for the Sherman letter and had not given her any part of it. Mrs. Jenks said that was the first time she had heard the statement Her mission was not successful, and Mrs. Weber did not go with her to New Orleans, but "you know," (she said disdainfully) these Creoles are a peculiar kind of people. It takes them a long time to understand good sense and good English.

Mr. Boynton was inquired of by Mr. Butler as to conversations with Mr. Harlan as to the bearing which the success of his mission to Louisiana, might have upon his then aspirations for a vacant place on the Supreme bench. Such conversations had taken place, but all they amounted to was an expression of opinion on the part of Harlan, if that annoying and troublesome Louisiana question was settled satisfactorily by his commission, it might promote his chances.

Ex-Marshal Pitkin, of New Orleans, called and testified at considerable length regarding the election in Louisiana. He threw discredit on the Weber-Anderson agreement, and said he knew Weber too well to believe that he had any hand in it, when Anderson showed it to him. Witness declared it false. He (Pitkin) had never conferred a single minute with Weber in regard to any protest. Had seen Mrs. Jenks twice within the last month, in New Orleans, and had showed her a paragraph in a newspaper stating that she had a photograph copy of the Sherman letter. She laughed and said: "How little the newspapers know." The Anderson protest which had been filed in his office he had sent to Senator Conkling last November for the purpose of convincing him that the story of Anderson's being drunk when he made it was not true, as the composition and writing were Anderson's own. He had not since got it back from Senator Conkling, because the Senator, when the witness called upon him for it, had not been able to find it.

The last witness called was Alfred G. Haley, of Washington. The intention being to show by him that Mrs. Jenks had told him something about the Sherman letter which was in contradiction of a portion of her testimony. Objection was made to this, first because it was immaterial, and secondly, because the proper foundation for contradiction had not been laid. The first objection was overruled and the second sustained. The purpose being to lay the proper foundation to-morrow, the Committee then adjourned.

It is understood that to-morrow the Florida investigation will be entered upon, and that the committee will immediately form into two sub-committees, one to conduct the examination in Louisiana and the South, and the other in Washington and the North.

CUMBERLAND CONVENTION.

The Solid Democracy of the Cape Fear--Good Nominations.

Correspondence of the News.

FAYETTEVILLE, June 24.

The Democratic Convention of Cumberland county assembled on Saturday, and organized by electing Major J. C. McRae Chairman, and Capt. Robinson Secretary, with the representatives of the Democratic press present assistant secretaries.

A roll of the township was called and all of them responded to the call.

The convention adopted a resolution requiring two-thirds of the votes present to make a nomination.

RESOLUTION.

Hon. W. C. Troy introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, It is of more importance to the people of North Carolina, that the Democratic party should control the State, and especially the Legislation thereof, than that any gentlemen should have his personal ambition for office gratified—principles, deserving to be held superior to men. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Democratic party in Cumberland county deprecates the idea that its candidates for the Legislature should be pledged in advance of their election to support any particular person for a seat in the United States Senate, and it declares its emphatic disappreciation of exacting pledges from its candidates on any particular line of conduct in reference to any local issues upon which members of the party are honestly divided.

Resolved, That we proceed to nominate two candidates for the Legislature.

THE BALLOTING.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for candidates. The result was telegraphed you Saturday as follows:

The Democratic convention of Cumberland to-day nominated the following ticket: For Legislature—Duncan Shaw and Jonathan Evans. Sheriff—R. W. Hardie. Clerk—Alex. McPherson, jr. Register of Deeds—W. W. Autrey. For Treasurer—J. D. Nott. Coroner—E. M. Waddill. County Surveyor—J. H. Smith. The ticket gives entire satisfaction. Resolutions endorsing the action of the Judicial nominations for Supreme Court, and the action of the last Legislature establishing Normal schools, were adopted. Full report by mail.

Mr. Myrover, of the Gazette, was placed in nomination for the Legislature, and although he declined to allow his name to be used, he received a very flattering vote.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the Chairman to appoint, within thirty days, the County Executive Committee.

FURTHER RESOLUTIONS.

On motion of Mr. Troy, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we have heard, with unmingled sentiments of gratification, of the action of the State Convention, held on the 13th inst., and that we unhesitatingly and enthusiastically ratify and endorse the nomination of those pure gentlemen and distinguished jurists, Hon.'s W. N. H. Smith, Thos. S. Ashe and John H. Dillard, for Chief and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

Resolved That we recognize the great importance of the State's encouraging and assisting as far as practicable the education of all classes of our people, and that we endorse the action of the State Legislature in the establishment of State Normal Schools, and that we recognize the wisdom of the State Board of Education in its action in establishing the Normal School for the colored people in the town of Fayetteville.

On motion of Mr. Ray, this resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention representing the county of Cumberland is composed of free men who have a right to express themselves individually and collectively, on all questions of county, State or national importance, and that our wishes in regard to such questions ought to be respected by those who represent us.

The introduction of this resolution gave rise to an animated discussion, during which Mr. Ray stated that it was offered as an explanatory resolution to Mr. Troy's resolution in relation to pledging candidates to the Legislature, which resolution had been adopted before he reached the convention, and that he thought Mr. Troy's resolution would not be understood outside the county. The debate was principally on the subject of the election of the next United States Senator. Judge Merrimon's card was severely criticised as being in bad taste, by some of the speakers, one going so far as to say that he could not see how any one calling himself a Democrat could vote for Judge Merrimon for any office. This resolution, which was adopted by a large majority, was understood to be favorable to Gov. Vance for United States Senator, and while some of the most influential gentlemen opposed its adoption on the score of expediency, it was apparent that the convention was almost a unit in favor of Vance. Both the delegates, although uninstructed, are for Vance—indeed no one could have received the nomination that was not in favor of the Governor for Senator, and hence it was unnecessary to pledge the candidates.

Mr. Robinson introduced a substitute to Mr. Ray's resolution pledging the delegates to the Legislature to abide the action of the Democratic caucus, which was not passed, it being deemed unnecessary for representatives of Cumberland Democracy to take a Democratic pledge.

THE NOMINEES.

Col. Duncan Shaw is a prominent farmer from the western portion of the county, and has been actively engaged in politics for thirty-four years. He was elected to the Legislature in 1844-6, to the Senate in 1860, and again to the Legislature in 1865, besides holding various county offices at different times. He is a fit representative of the Scotch element of the Cape Fear, a gentleman ripe in years, wisdom and legislative experience, and will make an excellent representative.

Major Jonathan Evans has a good war record, having raised a company. "The Cumberland plow boys" in 1861, which was attached to the 24th North Carolina Regiment, and on the organization of the Regiment, he was elected Major and served with distinction.

He is a prominent farmer from the eastern section of the county; was for five years President of the Cumberland county Agricultural Society; a regular attendant of the State Agricultural Society, and is a member of the Board of Agriculture of the State.

All of his energies have been directed since the war to develope the interest of the farmer. He possesses fine conversational powers, full of wit, humor anecdote and fun, is the best partrigde shot, and most graceful dancer in North Carolina.

With such representatives as Shaw and Evans, Cumberland county, in the next Legislature will be well and faithfully represented.

ROBESON COUNTY.

The State Ticket----County Politics----Probable Nominees.

Correspondence of the News.

ROBESON COUNTY, June 24.

Every body is delighted over the State ticket. I would hardly express it too strong were I to say the Robesonians are jubilant over the nomination of Hon. Thomas S. Ashe. They feel towards him as a home man. While their representative they loved him, and remained firm to the last, and now they are proud of the opportunity to give him a more responsible position. The people are talking some about the Senatorial question, but it is useless for any one to talk of any other man but Vance to the majority of the people of the county.

COUNTY POLITICS.

It is difficult to tell of county politics. The county is full of aspirants. Some, especially aspirants, are clamoring for rotation in office. New men is their cry. But from what I can learn, the people are satisfied to let well enough alone. The present Democratic officers have been faithful to their trust, and in every way have been prompt in the discharge of their duty. A faithful officer who understands well his duty is a blessing to any county, and such should always be rewarded and encouraged

PROBABLE CANDIDATES.

Col. W. F. French will probably be nominated for the Senate and A. C. Oliver and S. J. Cobb to the House of Representatives. If there will be a change in county officers and new men forced upon the people, the chances are in favor of J. S. Thompson for Sheriff and Wellington Wishart for Register of Deeds; but Mr. Ward the present Register is so popular that if he will allow his name to go before the convention July 4th, he will be surely nominated, for he has performed the duty since the party has been in power in the county and is the strongest man. The crops are doing well. Fruit will be abundant.

THE MARIETTA RAILROAD.

A Narrow Gauge Connection With Western North Carolina.

Asheville Pioneer.

It has already been finished to Canton, thirty miles from Marietta, and a large force of convicts are at work on the remaining seventy-five miles of the line.

By an arrangement with Col. Messer Fain, of Cherokee County—who had obtained a charter from the Legislature of this State to build a railroad from Murphy to the State line to connect with another projected road in upper Georgia,—the original design of making Ducktown the terminus was altered, and an agreement entered into to run the road to Murphy instead, with a branch to Ducktown, and the name of the road changed from the "North Eastern Georgia" to the "Georgia & North Carolina Railroad." Col. Fain has obtained stock subscriptions from citizens, and fifty convicts from the North Carolina authorities, to build his portion of the road—12 miles—and the convicts have been at work thereon for the last eighteen months.

This road is to run through a mountainous country, in which a broad-gauge is impracticable except at enormous expense and a delay of years. It passes over several ranges of the Blue Ridge in Georgia through which a broad-gauge would have to tunnel; and on the whole route, as we know from personal observation, there is not a cut nor a fill as deep or as high as the heaviest between Greensboro and Raleigh, on the North Carolina Railroad. It winds around mountain sides and follows up and down creek and river valleys, thus obviating heavy grades and tunneling, as well as deep cuts and high embankments.

THE RAIROAD COMBINATION

Statements of the Atlantic Railroad Exhibit that must be Answered.

Goldsboro Messenger.

The bribe or bonus foots up only $15,-040,50, and this against a deficiency in the freight earnings of the road owing to the combination amounting to 13,-771. 96; and if we are correctly informed, the aggregate indebtedness of the Road to-day is larger than it was a year ago. We stated that the increase in freight charges and damages by reason of the monopoly given the McCready lines, would aggregate $150,000 annually, and here too we were right. The damage to Carteret county alone will more than double the bonus received by the road; our Wilson neighbors estimate the increase at that point to be $20,000; Goldsboro and Raleigh may be safely placed in round figures at 50,-000 for each point, and the towns of Faison, Mount Olive, Fremont and other points will more than make up the rest.

We have been kindly furnished with an abstract of the freight receipts of the Atlantic road. It foots up $44,055.-32 for the year 1877-78, for actual and legitimate freight earnings, and $15,-040.50 for bonus or bribe money. The freight receipts for 1876-77, amounted to $57,827.28, being $13,771.96 more than under the combination; so it will be seen that the bonus received by the road will barely make up the deficiency in the legitimate freight earnings, and neither the road, stockholders or State are a whit better off than they were before the road was subsidized. We learn also that of the freight earnings for the year just closed, about $3,000 was realized in the month of December, when the bridges were down at Weldon; but for the combination this would have afforded even a far greater profit to the road. The road bed and rolling stock of the road may be in good condition. Why should it not be? The road has done less freight business; and consequently there was less cause for wear of property.

THE UNIVERSITY NORMAL SCHOOL.

Prof. Owens' Lecture on Geography--Prof. Ladd on Qualification for a Teacher- Kindergarten Collection.

CHAPEL HILL, June 24.

FIFTH DAY.

Prof. Owens is one of the most learned men with whom I have ever had the good fortune to meet. But with his vast fund of wisdom, he is modest and unassuming, and can only be found out in the class room. His lectures on geography are perfect, and calculated to revolutionize the old methods of teaching.

When a child commences geography, the first thing to do is to learn it to draw, so as to give it an idea of distance, size and position. Practice first of objects around it and it will then acquire terms and ideas for future use in the study of geography proper. Take a child and show it the natural divisions of land and water, and when the names of these divisions are met with in books, nothing will be required except a knowledge of orthography.

The mind of the child grasps quicker after having seen these things. Children do nothing but learn. They are not able to compare, cannot deduce consequences. Children ought to have ideas of lakes, rivers and other divisions of land and divisions of water before text books are put into their hands.

Do not begin the study with a map but a globe. You wish to install into the mind that the world is not flat but in the shape of a sphere. Educated persons in philosophy thinking on a high plan of religion and morals think the world flat. This idea must be gotten early as it is hard to break early training.

Teach Geography on the following principles: Form, position, size, contour, mountain chains, relief, internal waters, climate, vegetation, animals, five races of men, uncivilized men and the distribution of civilized men, industries, social and religious organizations. The last thing to be taught is the history of the civilized races. Draw a line from Wieser to mouth of Volga, North of this live the people of one race, of one religion with the same industries and pursuits. South of it there are various geographical regions and consequently various nationalities. History depends on Geography. There are two worlds. Old world is compact, new world an elongated body.

Great climatic phenomena are dependent on the arrangement of lands. Form, size and arrangement of lands determine the vegetable and animal life of various regions.

There are three bands of lands broken up by seas, and these are called continents. Smaller land divisions are called islands. The basins in between these lands contain the great divisions of water called oceans. If we read geography we know history and vice versa. Each northern continent has already been the theater of history. Contour is that delineation between the length and breadth of the ocean and the lands.

That jagged line is by no means an accident. It is so for a purpose. Each indention has its effects which are felt far to the inland, and effects the internal region.

Lord Bacon taught, that the Southern extremities of each continent culminates in abrupt mountainous rocky points, but the Nothern extremities widen towards the poles.

Teach what is common to all continents and then what is peculiar to each.

Southern points of continents high and rocky. Examples, Africa, Cape of Good Hope; Asia, Cape Cormorin; Australia, S. E. Cape; abrupt in its nature. So with other large divisions of land.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR TEACHERS.

At 12 noon, the school assembled en masse in the chapel. The villagers and the citizens of the vicinity showed their lively interest by attending and paying strict attention.

Prof. Ladd lectured on the qualification necessary for a successful teacher of the common or public shools. The University of North Carolina has made these grand efforts for the teachers of North Carolina because she feels that the heads of the public school is to mould her future pupils.

The first thing is to have an intimate acquaintance with human nature. Know your own species or you cannot deal with them. I am a firm believer in the science of character reading from the face. In this way I govern my transactions in life.

There are a class of noses which determine the character of a man.

Roman nose, bravery, real fighting, pugnacious fellow. This nose is what is called the arched, parrot, or chevy pitcher, indicates a defensive nature. The Athenian or Grecian nose is straight and is indicative of culture, refinement, love for arts and sciences.

There are different temperaments and they must receive different treatment.

The teacher is like the doctor. He takes a diagnosis of the intellectual disease and prescribes accordingly. There is a general impression that they do not know any thing. People think any thing good enough for teachers. Teachers must see, hear, and absorb everything, and not talk too much. It is hard to suit your patrons. Instil confidence. Don't tread on any prejudicial toes. Don't let any one get below your bottom of intellect. Be a keen and accurate observer. Pasting up rules forbidding this thing and that thing simply call such things to the mind of the pupil.

Prof. Page's classes in the study of Shakespeare and Analysis of Higher English are progressing finely. Profs. Winston and Noble are busy in Latin, as is Prof. Graves in Algebra, and Prof. Grandy, in Chemistry.

The interest in Kindergarten is not abating in the least. To-day the pupils brought in a large collection for object teaching. The collection consisted of flowers, plants, rocks, birds, cats, mice. In fact, representation of the kingdoms of nature, animal, vegetable and mineral.

Miss Kelsey, a Kindergartenist, from Erie, Pa., is here. She was a pupil under Miss Coe, in New York.

BURKE DEMOCRACY.

County Convention--Declaring for Vance.

Correspondence of the News.

MORGANTON, June 24.

Burke County Convention was held on the 22d. B. A. Berry was nominated for the House. A large crowd was in attendance, and they were harmonious on but one thing, and that was their fixed purpose to elect Governor Vance to the United States Senate. It may be fair for a neutral paper to publish all communications, but is it required of them to interview all chronic, growlers and politicians with no following.

VANCE RESOLUTION.

The following resolutions, introduced by Col. J. J. Erwin, were passed with great enthusiasm:—

WHEREAS, In Zebulon B. Vance, our present worthy Governor, we recognize a true patriot and good citizen, one who has labored most gallantly in season and out of season for the good of the Democratic party and the advancement of North Carolina, and has never received that reward at the hands of his countrymen which honest merit deserves; and,

WHEREAS, We believe in the great constitutional right of the people themselves to have a voice in naming the men who are to represent them in the National Congress, and desire that our voice may be heard in the selection of a Senator in the United States Congress; therefore,

Resolved, That our member in the next General Assembly be and is hereby instructed to vote for the Hon. Z. B. Vance for the nomination to the United States Senate, and to use all honorable means to secure his election.

That staunch Democrat, Capt. J. C. Miller, presided over the meeting.

BURKE.

GUILFORD COUNTY CONVENTION.

Large Attendance Harmonious and Enthusiastic Action.

Correspondence of the News.

GREENSBORO, N. C., June 24.

The convention was called to order by Col. J. T. Morehead, C. P. Mendenhall was called to the chair, and Albright and Duffy, Secretaries.

NOMINATIONS.

On calling the roll of townships 18, every one was found to be represented on first call. There was a very large attendance and harmony and good feeling throughout, (and these farmers and others the very bone and sinw of the county, intelligent and prosperous.) Nominations were made, which resulted in the choice of the following viz: Col J I Scales for the Senate, from Guilford and Alamance, C J Wheeler and Dr J A McLean, for the Commons, J W Gilmer, Surveyor, O C Wheeler, Coroner, W W Ragsdale, Treasurer, J N Nelson, Clerk, R M Stafford, Sheriff, and W U Stiener, Register. The four latter are old and well tried officers and know what duty is and try to perform it.

'Tis but seldom a more intelligent audience is seen assembled.

THE SUPREME COURT.

Resolutions were passed endorsing the action of the State Convention in making choice for Chief Justice, W. N. H. Smith, and Ashe and Dillard for associates; especially for the honor conferred upon so worthy a citizen of old Guilford, as Col. Dillard, who, by the way, is an elder in the Greensboro Presbyterian Church.

MEN OF HIGH WORTH AND CHRISTIAN EXAMPLE.

It seems well and fitting that, as far as possible, men for high political offices and trust, should be selected of high religious and temperance character and habits—men whose example will be followed whether for good or evil—the guardians of the people and the rising youth on whose shoulders must rest, some day, offices of trust and responsibility.

THE STATE DEBT.

Resolutions were also heartily endorsed calling on our next Assembly to make efforts to compromise that part of our State debt that is just and lawful, to the end that immigration may be induced to come amongst us, and that capitalists may have protection and seek out our wonderful manufacturing water power.

PROTECTION OF SHEEP.

The next Legislature should do something for the protection of sheep, and there should be a free discussion of this matter on the canvass all over the State, and if you (the News) can do any thing to this end, you will be a benefactor. It is alarming, the large number of dogs and the small number of sheep in our State. Our own county is terribly cursed in this respect, and our candidates will be called on for an expression.

COLORED EXCURSION.

I notice an excursion is to be had from here to your city on the glorious 4th, by the colored people, for the small sum of $1.50 round trip.

Weather continues very cool and quite dry, just in this section. PLUS.

Young Napoleon on the Press.

Speech at London Press Dinner.

If treaties of commerce have been concluded between the enlightened governments representing nations which were separated for centuries by feelings of hatred, those great events have only been rendered possible by the intelligent and energetic advocacy of the press. The progress of science arises from the circumstance that the observation and studies of every worker in its vast field have become through the press the property of all. But in the political world the part played by the press is still more important. There was a time when the fate of nations was decided in secret councils by three or four men. Nowadays the force that makes and unmakes governments, that settles peace or war, is public opinion. This supreme jury, before which every statesman must appear and render an account, would be but a blind tribunal were it not guided by an enlightened press. The press leads public opinion in the path of justice far better by stating facts than defending the best of causes by theoretical arguments. It is a proud thing to belong to a press which rightly understands and nobly does its duty. Amidst the European press, the English perhaps is the only one which completely fulfils its mission. There is not a misfortune which does not find in it a voice of sympathy or the hand of help; not an injustice which is not by it held up to public scorn; not a noble deed which is not held up to public praise or admiration.

MASONIC.

Saint John's Day--In Wilson.

Special to the News.

WILSON, June 24.

The Masonic Order of this town and the country adjoining, celebrated the event with becoming ceremonies.

At 8 p. m., the members of Mt. Lebanon Lodge, No. 117, assembled at their beautiful hall over the First National Bank of Wilson. After opening the exercises in due form, the Lodge formed, and in procession marched to Mamona Hall.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

Here an immense audience had assembled to witness the installation ceremonies, and to hear the address of the gifted young orator from Raleigh, Fabius H. Busbee, Esq.,

Mr. James S. Battle, of Corinthian Lodge, No. 230, Rocky Mount was the installing officer.

After the usual ceremonies-music &c. Dr. R. W. King introduced the orator.

ADDRESS OF FAB. H. BUSBEE.

Mr. Busbee, after a brief preface, began by justifying an occasional assembling of the craft in public, to vindicate the history and the mission of masonry. This, he thought, would be of service not only to the outside world, but to many masons, whose eyes seemed blinded to the higher path and glorious need of their order. He then recapitulated several of the best definitions of the sciences of masonry from numerous authorities, and defended the use of its secrets, its pass-words and its symbols. If it had no safeguards the atheist and the profaner could intrude upon the altar of the living God. The utility of its symbolism was illustrated by the flag and symbols of patriotism, and also by its use in religion to embody abstract truth and to illustrate it so that all could conceive it. He next paid a passing tribute to Saints John the Baptist and John the Evangelist, the patron Saints of masonry, and proceeded to discuss the history of masonry. The popular idea of its direct source at the building of the Temple was considered and the reason for the belief stated. The mysteries of Isis, the Eleusinian mysteries and cognate secret societies were discussed, and the final conclusion drawn was that the present order of masonry originated from the builders of the Modern Ages, associated with a few of the Knights Templar (after the abolition of that order) and the first lodge was formed about A. D. 1313. After a rapid sketch of its subsequent progress, the cardinal principles of masonry were declared to be the unity of God, the Holy Bible as the greatest light of Masonry, the independent existence of Truth as the foundation of all morality, and the practice of universal benevolence. Each of these ideas were elaborated and an eloquent quotation from Dr. Tyng upon the Bible as "the corner stone of the craftsman's faith" was effective.

The address which lasted about three quarters of an hour, closed with an earnest exhortations to Masons to bear aloft their ancient banner to new and grander victories.

Amidst great applause, the audience left the hall and repaired to the spacious dining rooms of the Briggs House, where a splendid collation was awaiting them.

Ball at Durham.

Special to the News.

DURHAM, June 25.

On Monday evening the young gentlemen of Durham gave a hop in honor to the young ladies who, for several weeks past, have been visiting the live town above mentioned.

At 8:30 o'clock the young ladies and gentlemen assembled in Duke's hall to "trip the light fantastic."

In a short time the well illuminated hall was enlivened by sweet strains of music from the well famed band, known as John Veralla's.

And through the warm weather was a little unfavorable for dancing, there was a large crowd in attendance, and everything passed off very pleasantly indeed.

THE COSTUMES.

The costumes of the ladies were as follows:

Miss Claude Barham, buff silk, with lace trimmings and gold jewelry.

Miss Bettie McMannen, light brown alpaca, with brown silk trimmings, and gold jewelry.

Miss Jennie Webb, pink and white tarletan, and gold jewelry.

Miss Jones, pink and white tarletan, lace trimmings and gold jewelry.

Miss Aggie Leathers, brown grenadine, pearl buttons and gold jewelry.

Mrs. H. E. Parham, pearl silk silver buttons and coral jewelry.

Miss Mollie Angiers, green silk, gold jewelry and a wreath of nice flowers.

Miss Lillian Clarke, black grenadine, with white overdress and gold jewelry.

Miss Lila Galloway, white and blue tarletan, with cape jessamine and gold jewelry.

Mrs. J. W. Jones, brown silk with pearl ornament and gold jewelry.

Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, brown silk, with brown silk fringe trimmings, and gold jewelry.

Miss Dera Lyon, black grenadine, with white overdress, and gold jewelry.

Miss M. Hopkins, drab alpaca, trimmed with lace, and gold jewelry.

After spending several hours very pleasantly by indulging in the innocent amusement of the hop, we then left the hall to rest our weary limbs for the busy scenes of to-morrow.

Thus ended the last hop of the season, and we sincerely hope that the young ladies in honor of whom it was given, will again at no distant day enliven our town with their presence.

Installation of Officers.

Correspondence of the News.

WINSTON, June 24.

This evening at 2 o'clock a large number of ladies and gentlemen met in Tisis Hall to witness the public installation of the officers of the Winston Lodge of Masonry. At 2:20, the faternity entered, and the exercises opened by prayer by Rev. Mr. Wrights. Mr. Babnson, Worshipful Master of Salem Lodge, presented, and Rev. M. L. Wood installed the following: Rev. S. D. Franklin as Worshipful Master; Mr. Norfleet as Warden; J. Q. Y. Barham as Junior Warden; C. Ogburn as Treasurer; S. H. Smith as Secretary; E Brown as Senior Deacon; Mr. Miller as Junior Deacon; Mr. Jacobs and John Wood, Stewards and Mr. H. Holder, Tyler. Rev. P. J. Carraway, of the M. E. Church here, then addressed the audience in place of the noted speaker who was to have been present, followed by Rev. M. L. Wood, P. E. of this District. Want of time prevents me from comment.

Special Dispatch to the News.

MORGANTON, June 25.

A. M. Erwin, of Marion, and John Gray Bynum, of Morganton, were nominated for the Senate from the 36th District, at Marion to-day.

Resolutions declaring for Vance for the United States Senate, pass unanimously.

Accident in Davie.

Correspondence of the News.

SMITH GROVE, June 22.

We are called upon to chronicle a very sad accident which occured in this vicinity yesterday morning.

While Dr. E.R. Williamson, and another young gentleman were passing through this neighborhood, their horse ran away capsizing the buggy, throwing the Doctor out, with violence, dislocating his right shoulder, and fracturing his arm badly. He was conveyed to Mr. J. L. Davis, who lives close by, and kindly cared for until Dr. Kimbrough arrived, which he did in a few moments, and succeeded in setting the injured limb. The other gentleman was not injured at all.

Dr. W. is a very clever gentleman has many friends in this section, and the accident has deeply enlisted their sympathy.

Politically, everything is quiet. Crops looking well especially corn and oats. Prospects brightning.

Cabarrus for Vance.

CONCORD, June 23.

Correspondence of the News.

Your gifted correspondent, Rev. Mr. Reid, spent a day at the American Hotel in our quiet town, and obtained subscribers for your valuable paper. If our citizens in other counties are as much interested in the welfare of the News as the people of Cabarrus you may rest assured that you are gaining favor every day with the people of North Carolina. I hear a good deal of talk among our country people that they will vote for no man that is not in favor of Gov. Z. B. Vance. for United States Senator. If there is a man in the State of North Carolina that is justly entitled to the support of our people his name is Gov. Z. B. Vance, that has carried successfully our great principles through the red sea of Radicalism. Let the watchword be Vance for Senator, and the Raleigh News to be the genuine organ of the Democratic party at the capitol.

Mr. Odell has carried eight out of twelve townships, which is equal to an election. We have had a great deal of excitement between Messrs. O. and M. Peace is restored, and we intend to give Mr. O. Vance's vote, 761 majority. Mr. O. will stand up for Vance, dead or live. CITIZEN.

Immigration.

Monroe Enquirer.

Smaller farms, and more of them, closer together, would have the effect of improving the social condition of our people, and at the same time increase the general prosperity of the country. It is well known that there is considerable competition, both in the old settled States and the new countries of the far West for emigrants, and it is also known that at the present time North Carolina offers less inducement to new comers than any State in the South and perhaps in the United States. Now this must be changed if we want new neighbors. Our land owners must let it be known that they will cut up their big lots of land into tracts of suitable size, and that they will lease or sell on favorable terms, and thus make an inducement to purchasers.

Meeting of Stockholders.

Lincoln Progress.

The Stockholders of the Chester and Lenoir N. G. R. R., met in Dallas last Thursday. Mr. W. H. Hardin, of Chester, was elected President, and the following named gentlemen directors for the ensuing year: J. L. Argurs and J. H. Smith, of Chester, J. F. Wilson, of Gaston; V. A. McBee, of Lincolnton; S. M. Finger, of Newton, and G. W. F. Harper, of Lenoir. The floating debt of the company is $147,000, and its assets, consisting of Chester and York county bonds, aggregate about $85,-000. This debt will be discharged by the issue of first mortgage bonds, and it is the purpose of the new officers to push the work vigorously on to completion.

An Indian Engagement.

By Telegraph to the News.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—A special from Silver City, says: The advance troops of Howard attacked the hostile Indians on Sunday, 45 miles from Harvey. Bernard boro the brunt of the engagement which took place at Curry Creek, Howard has sent all the troops possible to the front. Col. Robbins and two soldiers were killed. Couriers rode two hundred miles to furnish Howard news of the battle, and to ask for reinforcement. Maj- Egbert, at Camp Lyons, has been ordered to protect the Winnemacca Road, and give battle to the hostiles fleeing in the direction of Owyher. The probabilities are that the hostiles have met with a severe repulse.

Music Hath Charms.

Josh Billings to young girls.

Ef a man can beat you playing on a pinnaner, and kant hear a fish horn playing on the street without turning a summerset on account of the musick that iz in him, I say to leave him; he might answer to tend babe, and if you set him to hoeing out the garden, you will find you have got to do it yourself. A man whose whole heft lies in music, (and not so hefty at that), ain't no better than a seed-litz powder; but if he luvs to listen while yu sing some gentle ballard yu will find him mellow and not soft.

Deaths at Durham.

Special to the News.

DURHAM, June 25.

It is with regret that we announce the death of two of our highly esteemed citizens. Major Green, Esq., who died on Friday morning last, in the 72nd year of his age, and on last night, the 24th, the silent hand of death crept into our midst and carried to its long resting place the sould of Mrs. B. Y. Styron, a lady who had many and dear friends.

An adjourned meeting of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad stockholders is on to-day at Beaufort, to pass upon an act of the Legislature, authorizing an assessment of stock to relieve the embarressments of the road.

ON the published correspondence between Governor Vance and Secretary McCrary, and editorial remarks thereon, the New York Times goes for the News as "the principal Democratic newspaper in the State," but does not demolish it.

A SPECIAL term of the United States Circuit Court, Judge Bond, is on to-day for the hearing of motions, one especially in the Swazey suit with the North Carolina Railroad. It was also stated yesterday, by a party interested, that the matter of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad was expected to come up for argument.

THE beginning of the Seventy-third Session of Saint Mary's is advertised in the News to-day. This is one of the venerable institutions of the State, having been the educator of young ladies for more than a third of a century. Saint Mary's has been to the girls what Chapel Hill was to the boys, and is a cherished old place. Conducted under the auspices of the Episcopal Church, it is visited by the Bishops of the Diocese, whose care and pride it is. The patrons of Saint Mary's are scattered over the Southern States.

The Atlantic Railroad.

There is reported trouble again over the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, among the stockholders, and an injunction, yesterday issued from Judge Seymour, restraining certain of them from voting their stock in a manner so divided up and parceled out, it is alleged, that a very few stockholders owning a small proportion of the stock, would be able to out vote the State, owning her two-thirds of the road, and the county of Craven, the next largest stockholder.

This railroad has been a source of perpetual annoyance for a long time. One of the greatest achievements, if not the very greatest, was the completion of its line of rail to Beaufort harbor, had the purpose of the State not been thwarted in every effort to develop that great work. The war came along, suspending work on the Western North Carolina Road, which was to have completed the line from the Atlantic to the Tennessee line. Emerging from that contest, ruined herself, and every public enterprise broken down, the railroad management of the State fell into new hands, and with scarcely an exception, every effort that has looked back to the original purpose of an entreport at Beaufort has met with strong and successful opposition. The Goldsboro Messenger has about put in stereotype the open and positive declarration of certain railroad magnates, made with all the assurance of an absolute monarch, that New Berne and Morehead City should never be made entreports of commerce.

It is not the purpose of the News to enter into a controversy on the subject of the Atlantic Road at the time when its affairs are so unfortunately complicated, but it may be put on record now and for all time as actively in favor of the largest North Carolina development in every section and territory of the State, and it will never lose faith or hope in the possibilities of Beaufort Harbor and the old North Carolina System of old Dr. Caldwell until it shall have been tried and demonstrated to be a failure and an impossibility.

The public has already been made familiar with the condition of the mortgage debt of two hundred thousand dollars on the road, the suspension of payment of interest by interference of the courts on the ground of usury in the transaction. The matter is still pending in the courts, and there is now due interest, at the old rate of eight per cent., thirty odd thousand dollars. And in addition to this a claim on the part of the government for back taxes due in the first years after the war of some nine thousand dollars. A peremptory demand has been made for this money by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, which it is understood must be forthcoming on the fifteenth of July.

To save the road from impending ruin, the present management early in last year, entered into an arrangement, with the Wilmington and Weldon and other lines, known as the "combination," and which has been so thoroughly discussed as to require no extended reference thereto, now. Its nature has been fully explained and discussed. Public opinion has not sustained the policy, and it has been a subject of denunciation, productive of bad blood from the first, and the matter will come under review by the stockholder's meeting at Beaufort to-morrow.

The Goldsboro Messenger has had access to the consolidated reports of the General Freight Agent, and according to the statement which that paper makes, the combination policy has not come up to the expectation of its friends and originators, the freight earnings of the road aggregating only some twelve hundred dollars more than the showing for the year previous. That this policy, whether a success or a failure, was inaugurated in the motive of saving and benefitting the road, there can be no doubt, and no denunciation of the management therefor is in order. What has been done was done for what was thought to be the best, and if their judgment has been at fault, it does not follow that their motives were not the best, and in any event let there be no bad blood on the subject.

It is to be hoped that there is error in the figures presented by the Messenger. But whether so or not, the affairs of the road are undoubtedly complicated, and a heavy responsibility rests upon the Directors. They are practical business men selected for the public confidence and trust to be reposed in them, and they must deal with the matter as business men in the management of their own private affairs. If they are less diligent, careful and wise in this public trust than they would prove in their own business affairs, they will meet with public disfavor and disapprobation. The matter is absolutely their own now, and they cannot escape the full and undivided responsibility of the public trust confided to their hands.

Sentiment of the Colored People.

In commenting on the nomination of John H. Collins, colored, to be Solicitor for this Judicial District, the News expected to elicit response from both white and colored Republicans. In this it was not disappointed.

A very prominent citizen of Raleigh, of the Republican party, published a letter of very positive dissent and unmeasured rebuke and condemnation of the act. Very many members of that party in the city expressed themselves as highly indignant that a few designing and disappointed politicians should precipitate the issue of color on a people, all of whom had settled down to the recognition of the colored man in all his rights; regarding the attempt to thrust colored men into judicial positions as unwise, impolitic and most unfortunate, tending, as it did, to re-awaken prejudice that had long slumbered in forgetfulness, and that in the end the colored people must themselves be the sufferers.

The News has had little fault to find with the colored people, themselves, as a rule. It has not much blamed them for their politics, while it has had to universally commend the colored people of North Carolina for their behavior on all occasions of political excitement, and the good order which, from the very date of their emancipation, they have as a body of people preserved. And remembering these things, the very respectful attitude they had always maintained before the public, their growing intelligence and appreciation of what is best for them, from their party stand-point, the simple announcement of the nomination of a totally incompetent colored man for Solicitor of the Metropolitan district, a district which, under the old order of things, would be ridden by the Attorney General, the News could but regard it that the colored people had lost their heads, or that they had deliberately determined to insult the white people of the district and the State.

But the information followed that it was not the work of the colored people, at all; on the contrary, they had opposed it, and did most emphatically deprecate and condemn all such action, desiring that, while standing by their party, such men should be presented for office as would command the respect and countenance of the great body of the white people; preferring to wait, in the hope that time might remove much of the race prejudice, rather than themselves seek to break down the door which should open the way to the recognition of colored merit, and to promotion. Any reasonable man can appreciate and sympathize with such a sentiment as this. The reflecting colored man feels that the odds are all against him; that race, color and former condition repress the aspirations natural to every American citizen; and that whatever favor he obtains in the eyes of the old governing class must be won by merit and good behavior; that forbearance, generosity and the nobler impulses of the white man—that feeling which moves a strong man to espouse the cause of a weak one—are the safeguards of protection to the colored man, the source from which must come his promotion in the public establishments of our civilization, if such promotion shall ever come to him at all. They realize that there is not one thing to be gained through any effort of self-assertion further than to maintain their manhood and properly demean themselves before the public. And hence the better class of our colored people do not mean to precipitate issues on the white people, the only affect of which is to arouse their prejudices and lead to the withdrawal of favor and countenance from the colored race.

One of the most intelligent and prominent colored men of the Second Congressional District writes to the News to say he believes that he reflects the the sentiments of his race, when he says:—"We do not endorse any such action as that of the Tarboro convention. It is not approved by thoughtful and deserving colored men. Mr. Collins may or may not be competent for the position, but it is certain that he would not have been nominated but for the 'dog in the manger' spirit of disappointed ambitions. I have been careful to learn the extent as well as the cause of the opposition to the nomination of Mr. Collins, and find it quite general, but not simply because of his color, nor only because of his supposed incompetency, but because of the spirit in which the nomination was made, the men who made it, the objects for which it was made, and the results that are sure to follow its consummation."

THE NEWS regrets to hear of the failure, yesterday, of Wilson and Shober, bankers, Greensboro. Clever gentlemen, both, they have gone down under a pressure of the times which some of the oldest and best houses of the United States could not withstand. It is always a painful matter to have to record the failure of the local institutions of North Carolina. It gives a set-back to all struggling enterprise, and all industry and enterprise are struggles now-a-days.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
Catawba County, N. C.

THIS desirable watering place will be open for select visitors 20th May, 1878. The Springs are situated near Hickory Station, on the Western North Carolina Railroad.

The bracing mountain atmosphere, with the health restoring properties of their waters, renders these Springs a most desirable resort for invalids and pleasure seekers.

The mineral waters embrace Blue and White Sulphur and Chalybeate. It is the best and most extensively fitted up watering place in the State, and can accommodate three hundred persons.

A good Band of Music will remain at the Springs during the season, and all the facilities afforded for amusements usually found at first-class watering places will be offered to visitors. A good supply of ice constantly on hand.

Conveyances will meet the trains daily at Hickory Station, to convey visitors to the Springs.

Board: $35 per month of 28 days; $12 per week; $2 per day. Half price for children and colored servants, and liberal deduction for families.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——The filthy condition of this city entitles somebody to be shot.

——No meeting of the board of aldermen last night for want of a quorum.

——Under no administration was the nose of Raleigh ever so offended by compounds of villainous smells.

——Charles H. Spencer has been appointed commissioner of affidavits for the State of North Carolina, resident at Grinnell, Iowa.

——The Register of Deeds and Clerk of the Superior Court, yesterday, received from the Secretary of State a new election book. This is the book prescribed by the recent election law.

——Much interest is felt by the young men of the city in the Young Men's Christian Association. Nearly fifty names have been presented for membership since Mr. Cree's first visit here on Tuesday, 18th inst.

——Street Inspector Goodwin and Street Commissioner Betts are cordially invited to seats in the News office, every night, from nine till twelve, to take a smell of what is olfactorily apparent, they can not see in their daily peregrinations.

Magistrates Meeting.

A meeting of the magistrates of Raleigh township will be held this, Wednesday afternoon, at five o'clock, at the Mayor's office, to fill the vacancy, caused by the resignation of J. J. Lewis, Registrar of the first ward.

Special Term Circuit Court.

Judge Bond arrived in the city yesterday to hold a special term of the United States Circuit Court, especially to pass upon the additional allowance of $40,000 asked for Swasey's counsel, to be paid out of the fund. He has heretofore allowed $25,000 to them.

Much Sickness.

There are numerous cases of typhoid fever in Raleigh, at this writing, directly chargeable to the filthy condition of the streets and back lots. As many as six young men of one church congregation in the city are now lying low with typhoid fever. Why the whole population does not die can only be accounted for when it is explained how some escape in an epidemic.

Base Ball.

The "Merchants" and "Bloody Fifths" played a match at the Baptist Grove yesterday afternoon, resulting in a score of 29 for the former, and 13 for the latter. Mr. S. C. White acted as umpire, and as usual gave perfect satisfaction to both sides. The Merchants have been successful in three games, and are a good nine. D. T. Adams and J. H. Adams were conspicuous for their fine plays. The "Swiftfoots," a former champion nine, will soon contest for the championship, at which time we may look for some interesting playing.

Ice Cream Reception.

The ladies of Edenton street M. E. Church will give an ice cream reception to-morrow night at the parsonage. Everything possible will be done to render it one of the most bright and joyous occasions of the season. The yard will be brilliantly illuminated, and an open-air concert may be expected. Those who have never been able to visit Jacob's well in the East, can then have the privilege of doing so, and of drawing from it refreshing ice cream, almost without money and without price. As many of the most beautiful and accomplished young ladies of our city will be present, it will be a pleasant place especially for young gentlemen. If you want to have a good time, don't fail to go.

Personals.

J. M. Rose, Secretary of the Western North Carolina Railroad; S. G. Worth, connected with the Fish Bureau of the Agricultural Department; Capt. J. B. Hussey, formerly of the quill, now Hall Librarian of the House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.; Jonathan Warren, of the gold regions of Moore; E. G. Church, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. J. A. Sexton, of Apex; Benjamin Lyon, of Petersburg; Hon. Hugh L. Bond, T. M. Chatard, J. M. Biggs, of Baltimore, and A. S. Pendleton, of the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad, are registered at the Yarbrough.

We regret to learn that one of our oldest and most respected citizens, Mr. Henry J. Brown, is very ill.

Supreme Court.

Court met at 9 o'clock on yesterday, all the Justices present.

Consideration of cases from the 8th District was resumed.

M A L Neely et al. vs. J A Neely et al. from Rowan; argued for the plaintiffs by W H Bailey and John S Henderson, and for the defendants by Kerr Craige.

S F Lord and wife vs. T J Meroney et al. from Rowan; argued for the plaintiffs by J M McCorkle and John S Henderson, and for the defendants by W H Bailey.

John S Henderson vs. Lemly and Shaver, Administrators, from Rowan; argued for the plaintiff by Kerr Craige, and for the defendants by J M McCorkle and W H Bailey.

North Carolina Gold Amalgamating Company vs. North Carolina Ore Dressing Company et al. from Rowan; argued for the plaintiff by John S Henderson and Kerr Craige, and for the defendants by J M McCorkle and W H Bailey. (Chief Justice Smith having been of counsel in this case, did not sit at the hearing.)

J W Alspaugh vs. Winstead and Tuch, from Forsythe; argued for the plaintiff by J C Buxton, and for the defendants by A W Tourgee.

H F Bohnson, Administrator, vs. E. T C Cunnons, from Forsythe; argued for the plaintiff by J. M. Clement and for the defendant by McCorkle and Bailey.

Court adjourned until this (Wednesday) a. m. at 9 o'clock.

THE RALEIGH FEMALE SEMINARY.

Commencement Exercises — Grand Annual Concert.

On yesterday, between the hours of 11 o'clock a. m., and 6½ p. m., there was almost one continuous line of visitors, that called at the Seminary for the purpose of examining the large and excellent collection of drawings and paintings, (the work of the young ladies of the school), which are so artistically arranged on the walls of the Seminary chapel.

As the collection has already been described in the News, we will only say, that not one of the large number of callers, went away without expressing their astonishment at the skill of the young artists.

By eight o'clock the seats in the chapel were filled, and when the first chords of the opening chorus, burst upon the ears of the expectant assemblage, the crowd occupied every foot available in the building, and as many as two hundred persons were compelled by want of room, to remain outside, and after all, the outsiders seemed to have enjoyed the evening more than did those inside the chapel, as the air in the room was very close, owing to the density of the throng.

THE CONCERT.

The opening chorus "Now waits the Gondoletta" Ricci, commenced at twenty minutes to nine o'clock. It was sung by the entire vocal class in a very creditable manner. Then followed a duet on the piano "Peri Waltzes" by Misses Ray and Gunter. Miss Stallings sang Gatty's "One morning, oh so early" very nicely.

Miss Holland then sang with ease and expression "Constant Love," a ballad by Pinsuti. A quartette on two pianos was rendered by Misses Stallings, Parham, Briggs and Simmons, to the delight of the entire audience.

The next piece was "Good night, my child" Abt, sung with effect by Miss Durham.

After which a song by Miss Hunter, "Sing, sweet bird, sing" Gauz, was rendered with much expression and produced a decided effect upon the audience. It will be remembered that Miss Hunter was the young lady, who sang contralto so sweetly in Mosenthals Sacred duet, on Monday evening, at the church. She was encored and responded by a repetition of the piece, later in the evening.

Part the first concluded with the rendition by Miss Grausman of the aria-Robert: Toi que j'aime-Meyerbeer. This young lady's voice is a subject for general admiration; we have had occasion to mention its excellency before. As the last of her flute-like tones died upon the ear, the feelings of the audience was manifested in a round of applause that almost shook the building.

After an intermission of a few minutes, during which the audience expressed their delight at the success of the first part of the programme, part the second commenced.

It was introduced by the gem of the instrumental pieces of the evening. The Overture to the Magic Flute. Mozart, with arrangement for the flute by Prof. Bohlmann, and was performed by the Misses Hunter, Griffith, Westmoreland and Edwards, and Mr. Wm. Simpson, with flute. It was performed with wonderful power and expression, and received the unbounded compliments of the assemblage.

Then, in a sweet, pure contralto, with true intonation, Miss Briggs sang "When the Tide Comes In" Barnby.

"It Was a Dream," Cowen, was rendered by Miss Jones, with much delicacy of expression and received deserved applause.

The power and excellent execution displayed by Miss Grausman, in "Marche Funebre" and "Dance of the May Queen" two instrumental pieces, deserves special mention.

The gem of the evening was "L'Usignuolo Messicano" Gioza, it is a very difficult piece and requires much practice to master it. It was sung by Miss Mamie D. Lewis with ease and marvellous expression, the trills being rendered with exquisite distinctness; she possesses a voice of wonderful richness and sympathy and it has received a degree of cultivation that is rarely found in amateurs. At the conclusion of the piece the fair songstress was applauded to the echo and received numbers of boquets.

It is needless to attempt to criticise the playing of Mr. Bohlmann the Professor of music at the seminary, as he has long since proven himself to be an artist of the highest order of merit, both in this and other States. He is entitled to the universal thanks of the community for arranging and directing, such an excellent programme as was presented last evening.

The concert closed with the chorus "Awake, fair Venice" by the vocal class.

Nothing occurred during the evening to interrupt the enjoyment of the occasion, it was a fit finale, and justly suited for the evening following the address before the school, the subject of which was "The Beautiful." May the successes of the Seminary in the future be as marked as they have been in the past.

Colored Masons.

At a regular meeting of Widow's Son Lodge, No. 4, colored, the following officers were elected and installed by P. M., Scott Brown: O. M. Roan, W. M.; T. B. Edwards, S. W.; A. G. Haywood, J. W.; Warren Taylor, S. D.; A. W. Curtis, J. D.; Henry Hartsfield and Thomas Manly, Stewards; C. J. Proctor, Marshal, the Rev. Barham, Chaplain; and John Iredell, Tyler. After which the members of the Eastern Star conducted an entertainment to the craft and their friends.

Instructed!

It is an admitted fact that every delegate to the Wake County Democratic Convention was instructed to go Brewsters to buy Hardware, Paints, Oils, and Varnish, Tinware and Crockery, Wood and Willow Ware, Iron and Steel and have their houses covered with tin. Brewster's being the best house in that line in the city, and it being our duty to do the best for the people. Hence the instructions.

The improved Howe Sewing Machines and the Howe Scale a speciality. Parts and needles for all kinds of machines always on hand. The only place in the city where a sewing machine can be thoroughly repaired. *

The Acklen Scandal.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—A special from New Orleans says: Congressman J. H. Acklen received the following telegram from General Rosser in regard to the recent scandal in which these gentlemen figured:

"I have made no statements to newspapers concerning you. I have not seen the National Republican nor extracts from it and I am not responsible for what it has published which surely must be false."

Bank Failure in Greensboro.

Special Dispatch to the News.

GREENSBORO, June 25.

Wilson & Shober, Bankers of this city, failed to-day. Their suspension is attributed to the tight money market, and the general shrinkage in value of property on which they had advanced much money.

Judge Schenck.

Lincoln Progress.

In the counties of Polk, Rutherford, Cleaveland and Gaston, where all the scenes of the late controversy were laid, there were perhaps five thousand members of the Ku Klux, and all these members of the Ku Klux, and all these men knew Judge Schenck as a lawyer, a politican, and a man, and knew all the facts surrounding this controversy and every one of these counties sent delegates instructed to vote for him in the State Convention.

Symptoms of Approaching Dissolution.

From the Burlington Hawkeye.

The Cabinet meeting yesterday was disturbed by a very bitter quarrel between Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy. This quarrel, which is the first that has marred the harmony of the pleasant Cabinet meetings, grew out of a dispute betweene the two secretaries about a line of battle, the Secretary of War insisting that it was a chalk marked drawn on the ground by the general, which the opposing parties "toed" when they began fighting, while the Secretary of the Navy said it was a manilla hawser that tied the flagship to the dispatch boat, to keep it from running away during a battle.

A Secretion that Contaminates the Blood.

When the bile is diverted from its proper channels, into the blood, which is always the case in liver complaints, it ceases to be a healthy secretion, and becomes a poison. Its abnormal presence in the circulation and stomach is indicated by the suffusion of the skin with a hideous saffron tinge, by headaches, vertigo, nausea, pain in the right side and under the right shoulder blade by indigestion, obstruction of the bowels, and other minor symptoms. Order may be substituted for this state of chaos, and further bodily evil averted by using the beneficent alterative and tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which, by relaxing the bowels, promotes the escape from the circulation of bilious impurities, besides rendering the action of the liver regular, and removing every trace of dyspepsia. This pleasant and purely vegetable anti-bilious medicine is not only infinitely more effective than any form of mere cury, but is on account of its freedom from hurtful properties, infinitely to be preferred to that poisonous drug.

VEGETINE.

Vegetine

I ADVISE ALL WHO ARE SUFFERING AS I HAVE SUFFERED TO GIVE VEGETINE A TRIAL.

BOSTON, Sept. 9, 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I have suffered with Scrofulous Humor for seven years, and could get no relief. I have tried everything in the shape of herbs, salves, plasters, &c., but nothing did me any good. I was from my knees to my ankles one mass of sores. I was advised by police officer W. B. Hill to try Vegetine. I commenced last July, 1876. After taking the second bottle I began to get relief, and the sores to heal up. I was finally reduced to one large ulcer on my right leg, that run so much and looked so bad, that many said I must lose my leg; but, after I had taken fourteen bottles of Vegetine, my leg was all healed up, and I am now as well as ever I was in my life. I consider Vegetine the best cleanser and purifier of the blood, and advise all who may be suffering as I have suffered to give it a trial

HENRY T. SMITH,
No. 50 Utica St., Boston, Mass.

SCROFULOUS HUMORS.—The Vegetine has cured many cases of scrofula of five, ten, and twenty years' standing, where the patient has had many physicians tried many of the known remedies: and, after trying the Vegetine the common remark is, "It acts differently, works differently, from any medicine I have ever taken." Vegetine will cleanse scrofula from the system. Try it.

Vegetine.

I CAN RECOMMEND.

SOMERVILLE, June 13, 1875.

DR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—It is with great pleasure I can recommend in the highest terms your Vegetine as a purifier of the blood. Having met with a painful injury of the spine and sciatica nerve over fourteen years ago, my ankle has been swollen a great deal of the time, and very painful. By using Vegetine, I find great relief, as it gives a higher tone to the blood, improving my health; and I hope that all the human family in a suffering condition will avail themselves at once of this most valuable remedy.

Yours most respectfully,
WM. STINEHERST,
Station Agent, Somerville, Mass.

"Vegetine," says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed I visited the laboratory, and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots, and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE.

COMPLETELY URED ME.

NEWPORT, KY., Feb. 26, 1877,

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I write to say that seven bottles of your Vegetine have completely cured me from a very severe case of scrofula, of many years' standing, after trying many medicines and doctoring a great deal. I am now free from all sores, and can work as well as ever, and think the Vegetine is a god-send, and no one ought to do without it.

I remain, respectfully yours,
J. A. PATRICK.

Vegetine is now prescribed in cases of Scrofula, and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians owing to its great success in curing all diseases of this nature.

Vegetine

DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

VINCENNES, IND., 1878.

H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—We have sold Vegetine for several years, and it has given our patrons general satisfaction. Every one speaks well of it.

Respectfully,
MOORE & HARRIS,
Wholesale and Retail Druggists,
Main st., Vincennes.

Vegetine is composed of Roots, Barks, and Herbs. It is very pleasant to take: every child likes it.
